QUALITY POLICY

It is the policy of SEP Limited to supply products which are fit for their intended purpose, conform to specification requirements and are supplied within the cost and time constraints agreed contractually with customers.

All employees must adhere to the SEP Limited Quality Management System and will make every endeavour, through appropriate training, to perform their duties to this Programme.

Every employee is responsible for the quality of his or her own work and shall strive for 'right first time' every time. SEP Limited operates a policy of Continual Improvement for all products and services to achieve customer satisfaction.

In order to satisfy the quality requirements, SEP Limited has established a Quality Management System to plan, obtain, maintain and improve quality. This system complies with the requirements of BS EN ISO 9001:2008. The Quality Management System has defined quality objectives and the importance of the Quality Management System, policy and objectives are communicated to all staff. The Directors of the Company review the ongoing suitability of the Quality System, objectives and any opportunities to improve the Quality Management Systems.
